DICAPTA'S NEWSLETTER

Monthly Accessibility News - May 2024

Celebrating Global Accessibility Awareness Day

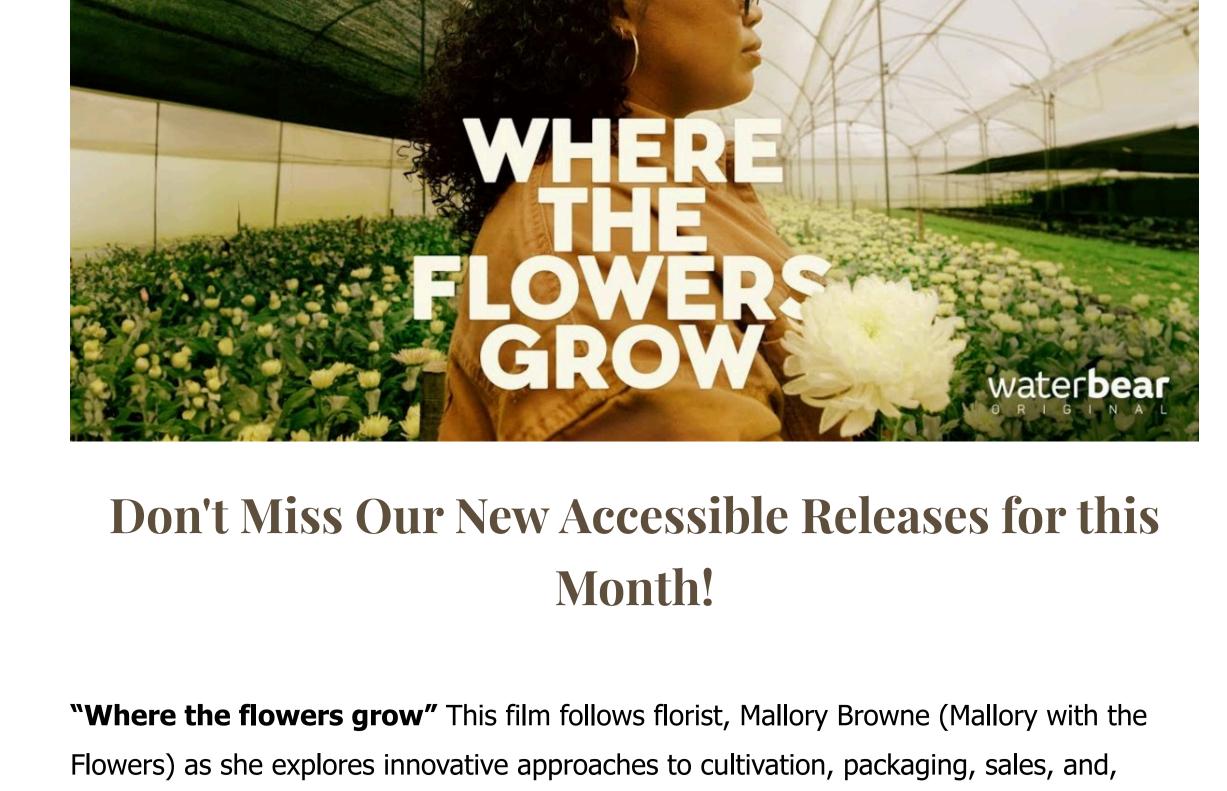

disabilities. It serves as a reminder that everyone should have equal access to technology and digital content. Looking for ways to celebrate GAAD? We've put together some standouts for this year:

1. Try using your favorite websites or apps with a screen reader or other assistive technologies to experience how people with disabilities navigate digital content. 2. Make it a habit to add Alt Text to your social media images. AI tools can help you generate an alt text automatically. 3. Encourage your organization to conduct an accessibility audit of its digital assets and

- prioritize accessibility improvements. 4. Attend online workshops, webinars, or conferences to learn more about digital accessibility best practices and principles.
- 5. Spread the word about GAAD on social media using the hashtag #GAAD to raise awareness and promote inclusivity.
- accessibility and contribute to a more inclusive digital world.

Be sure to check the GAAD website to continue expanding your knowledge about digital served as a reminder of the country for foreigners. But many of the roses, lilies, and carnations you see at the supermarket around Valentine's Day have traveled a long way to get there from Colombia.

WATERBEAR & IMAGINES PRESENT

The award-winning documentary "My So-Called Enemy" spans seven years, following six Palestinian and Israeli teenage girls in a cross-cultural leadership program. It showcases their transformative journey of humanizing their supposed "enemies" and crucially, flower consumption. For decades, flowers have symbolized Colombian pride and explores how building relationships across borders is pivotal for conflict resolution. Some new episodes for young viewers: "Daniel Tiger's Neighborhood," the beloved children's series from Fred Rogers Productions, returns with three brand-new episodes this month. Join Daniel and his friends as they navigate everyday challenges with kindness, empathy, and curiosity. "Sesame Street," a production of Sesame Workshop, presents an engaging new episode including fun and educational journey as beloved characters tackle obstacles, learn valuable lessons, and embark on thrilling adventures.

ReelAbilities

FILM FESTIVAL LOS ANGELES

May 4-5, 2024 | California Plaza reelabilitiesla.org

For the full list of releases, you can visit our website.

The festival's 6th edition will take place on May 4th and 5th at Downtown LA's California Plaza. The festival will showcase 14 films as well as the finalist of the All4Access is a global repository that stores media accessibility assets, like captions, audio description, and American Sign Language. It simplifies how assets are shared and used while protecting the rights of media creators. All4Access is a technology created by Dicapta is honored to be working again with the ReelAbilities Film Festival: Los Angeles to Dicapta and the Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, funded in part by the U.S.

Easterseals Disability Film Challenge 2024.

provide access to the audio description of its films.

Department of Education.

resilience shines through. As a business owner, author, and leader in the nonprofit sector, she has provided invaluable support to families worldwide. Learn more about Susan's inspiring story on our website.

Discover Susan's remarkable journey from charming childhood to dedicated advocate.

From dreaming of Olympic glory to facing her son's retinoblastoma diagnosis, Susan's

Our Mentor's Corner: Susan LaVenture

dicapta 75

Accessible Communication Developers

#H327C210001. However, the contents do not necessarily represent the policy of the U.S. Department of Education, and you should not assume endorsement by the Federal Government. Copyright © 2024, Dicapta, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:

mailto:info@dicapta.com

Want to change how you receive these emails?

This communication was developed under a grant from the U.S. Department of Education

You can unsubscribe from this list.